Hi Phil

Thanks for the email.

I've got nothing but good things to say about the football betting master ebook and service. I spent a few days getting my head round the risk free betting part of the manual, I think it's great you can get almost £100 in risk free cash simply by opening 3 bookie accounts I doubt most people have.

The tips and hit rate have also been great, quite simply I love your site! lol especially recently you've been getting about 7 out of 8 of your tips right, at odds of better than 1 / 2 or sometimes better than evens its an absolute goldmine and I can't thank you enough for letting me be part of it, you've made well over 200% on my bank this season and I'm really looking forward to the summer tips, especially the World Cup!!!

If anyone wants to email me with questions about your ebook or service I don't mind.

Cheers

Craig

Hi Guys,

I was asked to be a beta tester for the Football Betting Master system last August and I wanted to send in an email to show my appreciation to Phil and the team for all the profits they've made me in the last 8 months. I used the risk free methods in the manual to start with, to get myself a $400 betting bank, simply by betting bonuses against each other, $400 was a good result for what I could get in New Zealand (still amazing though), but in Europe I know that you can get atleast double that.

I decided to invest $600 of my own money to my betting bank after I could see that the formula was sound, plus I love betting on Football! At the moment, my account has $3463 sitting in it which is absolutely fantastic. Football Betting Master is definitely the best football system I've ever seen, and in terms of long term investments I can see that the potential of the system is awesome.

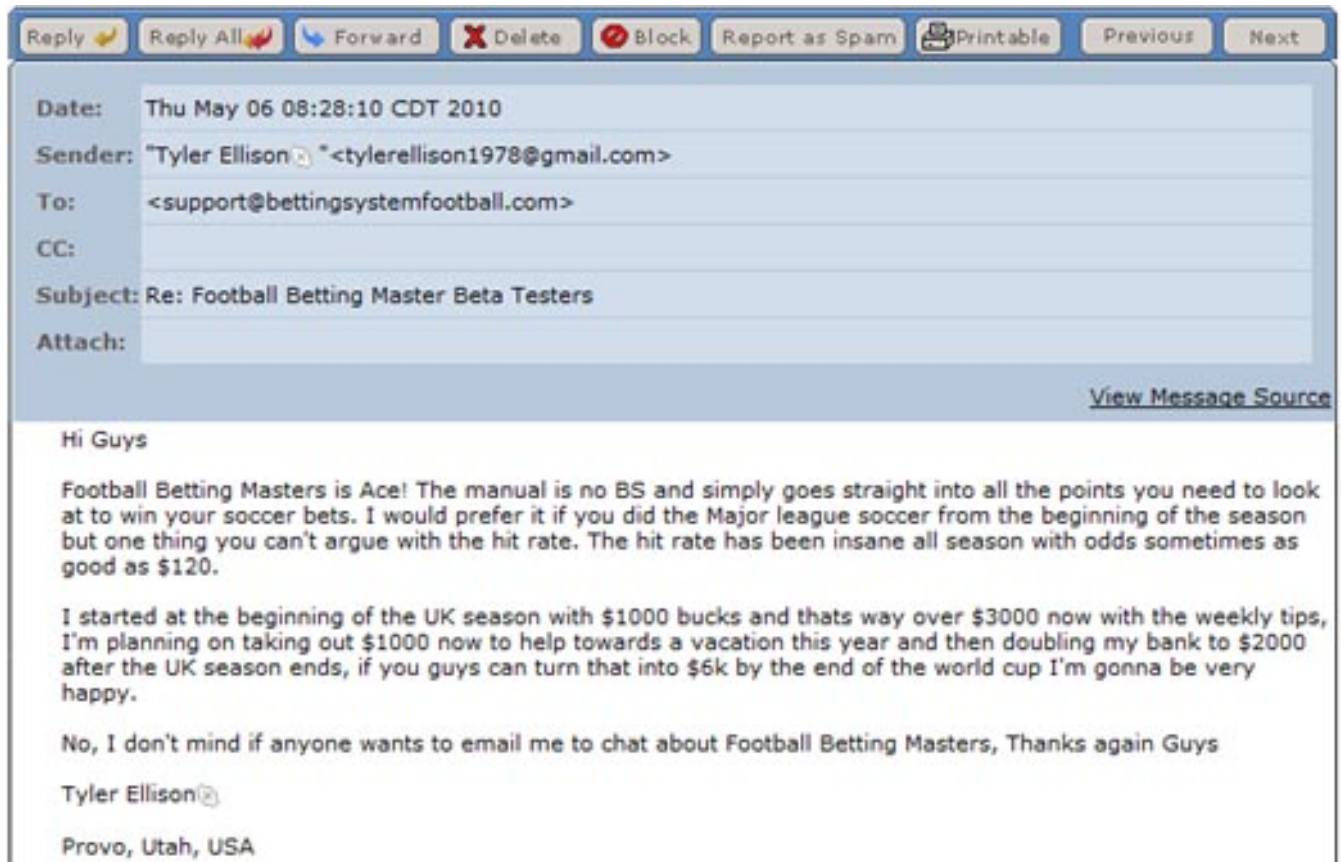

If anyone's sitting on the fence wondering whether to join, I would download the formula, and try the free tips for a month so you can see the dynamism of the system for yourself. The accuracy of tips is absolutely superb, they've been getting over 90% winners, at great odds of 1.8 to 2.

I can't thank you guys enough for all the profit you've made me this season! If anyone is thinking of joining and wants to talk me about my experience of the formula and tips, feel free to email me on heidilouisepaige@gmail.com. The nature of my job means I'm online most of the time, so I don't mind answering a few emails to help out the talented guys at Football Betting Master.

Big Cheers!
Heidi.

So What Is It Worth To Be Given Everything You Need To Profit From Betting On Football?

Let me put it this way, if your bank suddenly said to you we have a savings account that can make you over 200% in interest in less than a year, would you want one? ...Of course you would. And would you be prepared to pay a small fee for the privilege? ...Certainly.

But banks are safe and secure aren't they? Betting is dangerous? Isn't it? ...

I think we all know by now that bankers are the most high risk taking, lousy, greedy gamblers out there, and what do they give you for your hard earned money over a year, 20%? 10%? ... No, a measly 2.5% if you're lucky.

We Can Get You Serious Profits From High Value Bets!

So, I'm sure your thinking what's the catch here? ...Are you tied in to using this investment opportunity? ...Of Course Not.

Do we charge you if you want to get out of the investment early? ...No.

Can you stop if you want to? ...Any time.

Will you have to risk high amounts of money? ...No. certainly not, bet 10p or £1000 its entirely up to you. You can also paper trade Football Betting Master or bet to small stakes before you bet to see that we are for real.

Football Betting Master is a serious investment opportunity, one in which we stake our own money, week in week out. If you lose we lose, we want to ensure that this never happens.

We are not some casual bettor mouthing off in a forum about how good they are at betting. We are a group of betting and football experts who want to profit season after season ...And we have done just that for the last two years!

I have seen a lot of betting systems and I am sure you are as fed up as I am of their outrageous claims and false promises.

I'm sorry to say I can't make you a million by next Tuesday. I can't even make you £10,000 this week. However what I can do and will do is provide you with high value bets with a VERY high hit rate!

Plus a formula that has made over 200% this season ...And over 850% on our original investment in under 2 years.

If You're Making So Much Money Why Give Your Secrets Away?

First of all, I'm not giving my secrets away for free, although as soon as I reveal the price you will see I am practically giving them away.

Secondly, It makes no difference to me if I let a few people in on the secret, I can still bet using my formula as there is no way this loophole can ever be shut down by the bookies.

By sharing my profit pulling formula you get to make money on any league or tournament worldwide, whilst I make money betting, and a little side earner from people I share my success with.
